7. Comments or Concerns of any Person Present Today

- Chairman Cerrone began discussion on inquiring with DCP about how a local firm could get licensed with the legal issues that they are facing. And would like to know what steps the Board can take to alert DCP of situations that may require enforcement actions.
- Chairman Cerrone notified the Board that some states in the country are starting to implement specific CEU requirements.
- Chairman Cerrone inquired with the Board on their interest on hosting next years meetings all in-person. There was mutual agreement that the 2025 schedule will be all in-person.
- Chairman Cerrone on behalf of Board Member Cahill – inquiring about the Board’s ability to handle licensing investigations themselves.

8. Adjournment
